Voters return Smith to commission

Tammy Jackson
Staff Reporter

Residents in the City of South Bay voted Tuesday to keep Milinda Smith on the city commission. Comm. Smith was elected to her fourth two-year term on the city commission having defeated political newcomer Willie Styles 138 to 107.

Working as a teacher/counselor with the Palm Beach County School District, Comm. Smith said she took the day off to concentrate on the final day of her campaign. Nearing the 7 p.m. end of the voting, Comm. Smith pronounced in a seat and proclaimed she was tired and she had truly worked hard. Comm. Smith, along with many of her supporters, donned pink and green t-shirts and held signs at the busiest intersection in the city.

Mr. Styles, 47, and many of his supporters did last minute campaigning as they also were at intersections with campaign signs reminding the residents to cast their votes.

Following the announcement of her re-election to the commission, Comm. Smith said, "I'm happy it's over. We've been working very hard."

Comm. Smith said because of Mr. Styles' campaign, she is more aware of the citizens' concerns about the city's appearance. She said she will address that issue as she continues to serve the people.

The re-elected commissioner said she hopes Mr. Styles will lend a hand to the commission. She concluded by saying everyone needed to work together to improve the city.

According to South Bay City Clerk Virginia Walker, 252 ballots were cast. However, seven of those votes were unreadable.

Comm. Smith will be sworn in at the next commission meeting March 21.

Former police officer allegedly rapes date

Tammy Jackson
Staff Reporter

A 24-year-old Clewiston man, and former Belle Glade police officer, was arrested March 9 and charged with sexual battery after he allegedly raped his female date.

According to Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office (PBCSO) arrest reports, Anthony Bythwood allegedly took his date to a deserted road and forced her to have sex with him.

PBCSO reports state the victim said she met Bythwood several months ago and had spoken with him numerous times on the telephone. She said she only knew Bythwood as "Tony".

According to the report, Bythwood went to the victim's residence on Feb. 17 and asked her to "go out and have some drinks". The victim agreed but asked Bythwood to come back in 30 minutes so she could get dressed.

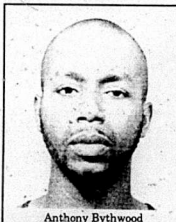

Reports state Bythwood returned to pick up the victim in 30-35 minutes.

The victim said Bythwood wanted to go to a nightclub in West Palm Beach, however she didn't want to go to that particular club. Reports indicate the victim asked Bythwood to just ride around.

The couple rode around the West Palm Beach area and the victim said Bythwood stopped at a convenience store and purchased a beer. After stopping at the convenience store Bythwood continued driving around the West Palm Beach area before suggesting to the victim they could go to his brother's home in Royal Palm Beach.

PBCSO reports state the victim said when Bythwood reached the Royal Palm Beach area, he continued driving west. She asked him how much farther did they have to go and reports state Bythwood said "just a little bit further".

The victim said the road became unfamiliar to her and she saw a sign which read Lion Country Safari. Reports indicate the victim became angry with Bythwood. When she asked Bythwood to take her home, reports state Bythwood did not answer and turned up the music in the automobile and continued to drive. She said they soon came into Belle Glade. She again asked Bythwood to take her home and he didn't respond.

The victim said Bythwood drove around the Belle Glade area before driving on a road with very little traffic. Unaware of when she was, the report states Bythwood turned onto the Hooker Highway extension. The report says Bythwood drove through a gate and up a hill before he turned off the car and allegedly got out. According to police, the victim told Bythwood she was scared because she was not familiar with the area.

Reports state Bythwood became angry and grabbed the victim by the wrists and yanked her out of the car. The victim told police she grabbed at Bythwood's neck in an attempt to get away. However, reports state "she did not make any marks". The woman said Bythwood forced her to have intercourse with him.

After getting back into the car, Bythwood drove the automobile back in the direction that the victim thought was West Palm Beach and went onto a large highway. After driving a short distance on this road, the report continues, Bythwood pulled over and got out to urinate. The victim jumped on to the driver's side and drove off.

According to reports, the victim drove until she saw a deputy and told her of the incident. Deputy Haywood noted the victim's knees

City sidewalks to get facelift

Authorization was given during last Monday's Belle Glade City Commission meeting for Wynn & Sons Environmental Construction, Inc. to begin the first phase of an aggressive campaign to rehabilitate city sidewalks.

City Manager Lomax Harrelle said, "There has been no major sidewalk work done within the past five years, and some areas are badly in need of rehabilitation." He said this first phase is not to exceed $32,500, and he anticipates even more action planned for coming years due to the age and condition of most of the sidewalks.

The commission also adopted a resolution supporting more stringent policies for foreign grown agricultural products. The resolution requests state and federal governments to implement policies for protecting public health and safety by requiring imported products to show proof of origin and to meet the minimal standards imposed on native grown products.

In other business, the commission approved the following items of business:

- Authorized Ranger Construction to proceed with this fiscal year's street paving program in the amount of $149,850.
- Authorized and adopted an ordinance relating to abandoned and discarded motor vehicles, and providing for the posting of a notice of violation and disposition within a prescribed time.
- Authorized City Attorney John Baker to draft a resolution and interlocal agreement with Palm Beach County for a joint application for a Florida Enterprise Zone.

Health FIRST

Paula Swaford, R.N.

Paula Swaford

Creeping Crud and Galloping Gangrene

After working with a local prominent pediatrician I discovered a truly amazing phenomenon. If a mother took her child to the doctor for an ear infection, or a cold, for example, she absolutely refused to leave the office without a prescription for an antibiotic. Even against the physician's advice that the child would get well without the medication, she would still insist on a prescription.

Our society has been guilty of wide-spread misuse of antibiotics for many years. Since the advent of penicillin, and subsequently the broad-spectrum cephalosporins, and other new drugs on the market, our overuse and misuse of antibiotics have allowed many kinds of bacteria to mutate and become immune to their effects.

The CDC (Center for Disease Control) in Atlanta calls drug resistance in the USA and abroad "a major public health crisis..."

Drugs that once seemed invincible are losing their effectiveness against many common diseases, including TB, gonorrhea, middle-ear infections and staphylococcal infections. The day may be fast approaching when patients will go to their doctor for help... only to be told they have nothing to offer to treat them with.

What has happened in many cases is that people are using broad-spectrum drugs which wipe out everything, good bacteria as well as bad, leaving the field clear for antibiotic-resistant germs to spread unchecked. Kids in day care use antibiotics three to five times more often than other children.

Everyone is to blame for this turn of events, from the patient who takes just a week's worth of a 14-day prescription, which doesn't quite kill the germs, but lets them adapt to the antibiotic, to the doctor who prescribes the "atom bomb" antibiotic when a lesser ".22 bullet" would do.

New forms of infection, and old diseases making a comeback, underscore the danger:

**Tuberculosis (TB) - resurging TB, often in people with HIV, has become a public health menace. The new strains are MDR or multi-drug resistant, and are super difficult to treat, and easily passed on to others.

**Hantavirus - A new, deadly strain of a virus known to cause kidney disease cropped up last year. Three new varieties identified cause sudden respiratory distress and often death.

**Food and water-borne infections - We've all heard of the E coli bacteria in the fast food chain's hamburgers that killed four children and left many others seriously ill.

I can't stress enough the importance of taking antibiotics according to directions, when prescribed as necessary by your physician. Be aware that for most viral infections, like the common cold, antibiotics aren't really effective. Until next time... stay informed, talk to your doctor for more information and do what you can to stay healthy.

Second anniversary this month for "the storm of the century"

storm of the century." It is an appropriate name because this storm was amazing.

If there's one thing meteorologists like to do more than just watching storms it is studying storms. The "storm of the century" is currently the subject of three new studies that try to put this monster in perspective.

How powerful was it? Paul Kocin, a researcher at the National Meteorological Center in Camp Springs, Md. and the author of one of the studies, answered the question this way: "The superstorm resulted in dozens of fatalities on land and at sea, hundreds of injuries, damage of $2 billion and the most widespread disruption of air travel in the history of aviation."

This was a storm that affected the lives of nearly half of the people in the United States. It had an impact on Mexico and Cuba, too. Coastal flooding in Cuba caused an estimated $1 billion dollars in damage and tornadoes in northeastern Mexico resulted in loss of life.

Obviously, this was no ordinary storm. It was born on Friday, March 12, 1993, in the northern Gulf of Mexico. By the time it had exited Maine two days later, this superstorm had spawned a dozen tornadoes, produced winds as high as 144 mph, temperatures as low as 31 degrees in Daytona Beach, more snow than any other storm in 150 years and a central pressure comparable to a category three hurricane.

Birmingham, Ala. recorded 13 inches of snow! That was the greatest amount of snow for any day, any month or any season in Birmingham. Five feet of snow fell on Mount Mitchell in North Carolina while snowfall of 40 inches or more was recorded in seven states.

While the "storm of the century" affected nearly everyone east of the Mississippi, its biggest impact was felt here in Florida. Forty-seven people lost their lives here in the Sunshine State and damage from the storm was more than $1.6 billion dollars.

Tornadoes claimed 11 lives in Florida while coastal flooding took another 13. The worst flooding occurred on the west coast where tides were 12 feet above normal. Winds reached 109 mph at Dry Tortugas and 83 mph at Vero Beach.

What made this storm so powerful? Like most extraordinary events, it was a combination of weather factors that came together in just the right way. Warm air, cold air, abundant moisture and a very strong jet stream were the ingredients that cooked up this amazing storm.

Perhaps, what is more amazing about "the storm of the century" was our ability to forecast it accurately. Five days before the storm hit Florida's west coast, in fact, even before the storm existed, forecasters knew it was coming.

That's the good news. If another "storm of the century" is in our future at least we'll know that it is coming. Thankfully, these storms only come along once every one 100.

Mike Lyons is the weatherman for WFTS, Channel 28.

By Mike Lyons

There's nothing like a big storm to get a meteorologist excited. I don't want to sound morbid but weather folks love big storms. In fact, the bigger the better.

Two years ago this month the biggest storm in over 100 years was headed toward Florida. It was called "the

WHAT ARE THE SYMPTOMS OF GUM DISEASE?

Gum disease (or periodontal disease) involves the break-down of tissues around the tooth that often leads to tooth loss. Although the disease is often painless, some symptoms may go unnoticed because it doesn't hurt. Symptoms of gum disease may include bleeding gums (although some cases do not bleed), foul breath odor, loose teeth, and/or teeth that seem to spread apart or seem like the spaces in between the teeth are getting bigger. Pus may form at the gum line, and/or the gums may pull away from where they used to be. The good news is that you can control gum disease with proper home care techniques and visiting your dentist. Dental studies show that 8 out of 10 adults have some gum disease. Don't be a STATISTIC! Let us help you control the plaque that leads to periodontal disease. ### Caller concerned about losing West Tech

"I'm concerned about our West Technical Education Center, located in Belle Glade. I've lived in the area for about 18 years and I served on the West Tech Advisory Committee for five years. After listening to several discussions lately, I'm convinced that the Glades, Hendry, Western Palm Beach County is on the brink of losing this tech school unless we, the people, speak together and stand up to the school board of Palm Beach County.

Palm Beach has got the School of CHOICE in place in Pahokee. This is an alternative high school for those students who do not conform to normal high school rules. These students are allowed to come and go as they wish and leave when they wish and get credit and also a high school diploma.

There was one child killed there last year and another couple who were injured during a shooting. Just this week there was a stabbing that occurred over there.

The superintendent of Palm Beach County has approved a specialist in alternative education to find a new building to move the School of CHOICE into since the roof on the existing building in Pahokee needs a million dollars in repairs.

I visited the School of CHOICE and asked the principal if I could see the leaks that needed repaired and he told me that there were no leaks. You wonder where your tax dollars are going?

I'd like to get real and if we move the 300-400 School of CHOICE students in on West Tech I think it would spell disaster to our tech school.

To even think of this shows that there is something very wrong in the Palm Beach County school board of administration. $3.5 million of our money is already out here on an empty site next to West Tech because of poor planning and if we don't stand up for our tech school now it will become a School of CHOICE and our tech center will be gone forever.

If an alternative high school is needed then it would be more cost effective to build a school with the appropriate security measures to handle these students."

Editor's note: This Speak Out was edited while hopefully retaining the caller's message.

Don't cross the line

"To the one who is concerned about the red light changing. If these people will realize that when you cross that solid white line at a red light, turning lane or straight ahead, the light will not change for you.

for you. Under these sensors they have put in the road (and most people apparently do not realize) that you can not cross the white solid line and expect the light to change for you. Thank you."

Why was officer hired?

"I was just wanting to know. I was reading today's paper, March 10, 1995 Palm Beach Post. There is an article about an ex-Belle Glade Police Officer by the name of Bythwood. I was just curious as to why he was hired after his interview and which three of the four lieutenants recommended that he not be hired because of problems?

Now it seems that the police department is totally embarrassed by his arrest for the charge of sexual assault which is public record. It seems to me like the three out of four lieutenants were right. I would appreciate the chief's response on that. Thank you."

Belle Glade Chief of Police and Director of Public Safety Michael R. Miller responds: "Once again I must set the record straight and provide the facts to the citizens of Belle Glade. First of all, I have no reason to be embarrassed by Mr. Bythwood's arrest. I have sympathy for the alleged victim and if Mr. Bythwood is convicted in a court of law he should be held accountable for his actions. Mr. Bythwood was not employed by the City of Belle Glade when this alleged incident occurred and the City of Belle Glade has no involvement or liability in this matter.

As to Mr. Bythwood's employment with the Belle Glade Police Department, Mr. Bythwood applied with a clean criminal record, highly recommended by members of the community and representing hometown experience. Mr. Bythwood was interviewed by two lieutenants and two sergeants. Mr. Bythwood stated in his interview that he had an application with the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department.

We were concerned that the City of Belle Glade would invest considerable training and money in Mr. Bythwood and he would leave and take those resources to the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department. The same reason that members of the Review Board voted not to hire Mr. Bythwood was their concern that he would leave the City of Belle Glade and go to work with the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department. These concerns are documented in writing in Mr. Bythwood's personnel file.

I requested and received a written commitment from Mr. Bythwood to stay with the Belle Glade Police Department for two

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor:

On March 2, I attended a performance of the Belle Glade Elementary School Chorus (third, fourth, and fifth graders), directed by David De Waele. The singing was so clear and confident! The costumes, props and choice of songs were delightful, and I was so impressed at the work being done in our public schools here. I went not as a parent but as the teacher of students in our after school program.

I have gone to several performances at Belle Glade Elementary and to the award programs at Glade View Elementary. (The Black History program at Glade View last month was outstanding.)

When attending Student Advisory Committee meetings at Gove Elementary, I've met administrators and several faculty members and looked over the many displays of the student work. Each time, I've come away wanting to write and congratulate our public schools in Belle Glade for the fine job they are doing.

I compliment the children on their talent and enthusiasm. I'd also like to commend the parents who attend these programs with their children. Glade View's cafeteria is bursting at the seams with parents who come for the honor roll award ceremonies!

I wish more of the general public were aware of the high quality of the student performances in our community. I would encourage the schools to provide the news media with more information and coverage of such events.

Dear Editor:

Everyone's Irish on St. Patrick's Day...or so the saying goes. And to those who raise a glass to Ireland's patron saint on March 17, we ask them to do so responsibly.

Those who volunteer to be a designated driver on St. Patrick's Day should be honored for they help in doing what even the luck of the Irish cannot: stop drunk driving. In fact, designated drivers deserve credit for contributing to the 33 percent decline in drunk driving fatalities in the last decade.

This St. Patrick's Day, Bernie Little Distributors, Inc., along with several of the most popular St. Patrick's Day gathering places in the Glades area, will be working to keep that trend improving by reminding customers to use a designated driver and drink responsibly.

As the Irish and would-be Irish congregate around town this St. Patrick's Day, let's all remember that having a good time means looking out for ourselves and others - especially when it comes to drinking.

Sincerely,

Joseph K. Little

Guest Commentary In partnership with nature

By Linda Parker
President of Everglades and Florida WIFE (Women Involved in Farm Economics)

The many contributions American agriculture has made to preserving and nurturing our environment will be celebrated during National Agriculture Week, March 19 through 25, and National Agriculture Day, March 20.

Through this annual celebration of agriculture, we are letting more than 250 million Americans who are fed and clothed by American producers know that we are just as concerned about preserving the environment as they are. We are constantly improving our methods of production to protect all of our precious, natural resources and to ensure the health of future generations.

Wildlife is one of the primary beneficiaries of American agriculture's stewardship. Seventy-five percent of the nation's wildlife live on farms and ranches. The trees that farmers and ranchers plant to protect their land provide shelter for birds, deer, antelope, ducks, and geese. Freshwater streams that run through farm and ranch land are home to millions of fish. Corn, wheat, soybeans, and other crops left on fields after harvest provide bountiful food that helps many animals make it through the winter.

More recently, American agriculture has become an important resource for more than food production. Biodegradable garbage bags and eating utensils are made from corn starch. Soybeans can be found in cleansers. Milk not only feeds children, it is also used to make tape for disposable diapers. Such new uses for agriculture products not only conserve non-renewable resources, but also provide jobs for rural economies.

The year 1995 is a very important year for every farmer, the family, and the American consumer. In April and May of this year, your legislators will be working on the new Farm Bill. They hope to be finished by summer recess.

The Farm Bill is not only for the farmer - 58 percent of the USDA budget goes for Food Stamps, WIC (Women, Infants and Children), Commodity Distribution, school breakfast and lunch programs. Almost 9 percent goes to the Conservation and Forestry programs that protect the natural resources of the earth, air, land, and water that all Americans hold dear.

Another 2.6 percent of the USDA budget in the form of research, maintains the low cost and high quality of our food. We must not put our food supply in danger.

Support your community and fight for the security of your job by writing your legislators. The pen is still one of our most powerful weapons.

We know your letters will be read and will influence their votes. A vote for agriculture is a vote for all Americans!

Speak Out

years after training. Based on this commitment and the fact that he had a clear record and brought with him hometown experience and recommendation from the community, Mr. Bythwood was employed by the Belle Glade Police Department.

NOTE: No one should be granted special privileges or denied any opportunity because of who their parents are.

What's wrong with criminals sleeping on the floor?

"To the poor mother who spoke out about her child sleeping on a mattress in jail's floor: Why is the child in jail? Were you concerned about his formative years? Why are many of my tax dollars being spent on losers?"

If a person has to be jailed for crimes against society, bread and water sounds fair, so does sleeping on the floor. Period.

Why does society owe any jailed offspring anything? They owe restitution for their crimes. Thank you."

More response to "Sleeping on the floor"

"The mother who complained about the transfer of her son to jail and had to sleep on a mattress on the floor of the jail should recognize that she is in need of immediate mental health attention.

She needs to be concerned about the next time he is in need of free housing and food, he might be sleeping in a body bag or a county paid for box in the funeral home.

Has she given any thought to the hurt her son has caused other people? Taxpayers are tired of paying for her son and others like him with offensive behavior.

This mother really needs a wake-up call."

Responding to Speak Out on traffic light

"In order to get to work on time, you may need to leave home earlier.

Lights are erected for safety and not to assist people to get to work on time."

Fritz Stein III takes record buck in Okeechobee County

A white-tailed deer with a rack that scored 148 and 48 points by the Boone and Crockett measuring system recently qualified for the Florida Buck Registry.

Fritz Stein III of Belle Glade took the buck on Oct. 30 in Okeechobee County. He used a .50 caliber black power rifle. Bucks must score at least 100 points to qualify for the Florida Buck Registry.

Mr. Stein's typical rack is the largest and best formed rack taken in the Everglades Region since the Florida Buck Registry was established in 1982 said Lt. Jim Huffstodt of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The record holder in the Everglades Region had been a buck scoring 145 taken in 1978 by G.P. Holly in St. Lucie County. Lt. Huffstodt said the Everglades Region includes Palm Beach, Broward, Dade, Volusia, Monroe, Collier, Hendry, Martin, St. Lucie and Okeechobee counties.

"This was quite an achievement for Mr. Stein," said Lt. Huffstodt. "The deer in South Florida don't get as large as deer found further north, and usually don't have a large rack. The buck taken by Stein had a truly impressive rack."

More than 2,500 racks have been scored for the Buck Registry by volunteers with the GFC's Wildlife Reserve Program since 1982.

"The Buck Registry gives the hunter recognition for his prize buck," Lt. Huffstodt said. "It also gets the word out to the public that record bucks are dependent on the availability of quality habitat and sound wildlife management."

Rosenwald Elementary students learn accomplishments of Afro Americans

Although the progress and contributions of people in the development of a nation should be an integral part of history, Black Americans were denied these and other rights. Now we celebrate Black History Month. In the halls of Rosenwald, the story telling, listening to oral traditions, students, daily presentations of a famous Black via morning announcements, and listening to strains of Scott Joplin and Louis Armstrong. Hopefully, all students of color learned more about their heritage and role models, and those of other faces developed a greater understanding and respect for them.

The Black Brain Bowl competition was held with competitors among each grade

The winners from each division were: fifth grade - Mr. W. Thomensen's class, Mrs. Walker's class, and Mr. J. Brown's class; fourth grade - Mr. O. Barron's class; third grade - Ms. N. Conklin's class and Mrs. N. Loggin's class. Congratulations to the students who studied hard and were chosen as the four class representatives. Thanks to Mrs. A. Perceval for coordinating the activity and her committee.

Rosenwald's first newsletter was printed and received rave reviews. Thanks to Mrs. C. Gilliam, parent resource specialist, for its coordination. We await the next issue.

Members of Jackie Radcliff's Success For All Reading group were visited by Karleen

Anderson of the Zora Neale Hurston Roof Garden Museum. She presented an exciting lesson which helped them sound out and spell words, identify the number of syllables and use the dictionary. The Black American presented was Otis Boykin, inventor. The students learned new vocabulary relating to the story of Boykin. Students did the buzz game to spell. They then used the story vocabulary in meaningful sentences. Great job Mrs. Anderson!

Rosenwald held its Open House Feb. 23 and the school's hand bell group performed a delightful melody. Mrs. C.

showed the standing-room only audience a short film on the implementation and progress of the reading program, Success For All. Remarks were made by assistant principal Barbara Hussman, and the introduction of new faculty additions and seasoned staff members was done by Principal E. Harrell.

Students who earned honor roll awards were presented with certificates at the South Bay City Commission meeting. This is the sixth year this presentation has been in existence.

The fourth and fifth grade students took their annual trip to the Brighton Indian Reservation.

The third, fourth and fifth grade students were favored with a presentation of speeches by the Martin Luther King Oratorical contest winners. They were welcomed by Michael Rainey. There was another in a series of Black History activities.

H&R Block can assist with Form 9598

In its ongoing effort to reduce tax fraud, the Internal Revenue Service is reviewing many, if not all, tax returns that claim the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC). Some taxpayers simply have to wait longer - up to eight weeks - to receive this money. Other taxpayers whose 1994 tax return included EITC are receiving a follow-up questionnaire from the IRS.

Arlene McCullough of H&R Block says, "It is critical that taxpayers complete and submit this form promptly. If the IRS does not receive a response within 30 days of the notice, the taxpayer may lose the entire EITC portion of his/her refund. The questionnaire (IRS Form 9598) requires that specific documents be returned to the IRS along with the completed form. For example, a copy of the birth certificate for each child listed on the tax return must be sent with the form. Taxpayers who don't have the necessary birth certificates will need to obtain a copy from the child's state of birth. The IRS may also request other information in the form of notarized statements.

H&R Block offices can help taxpayers complete Form 9598 and provide information on how to obtain birth certificates and other documents that may be required by the IRS. "We're here to help," said Ms. McCullough. "People who rely on the EITC are hurting because of the delays. We would like to see someone who is entitled to the credit lose it because the process was too confusing."

Sunday, March 26. The registration fee is $25 and those interested should register by this Friday, March 17. Please call the high school office at 996-6769.

Don't forget to get your tickets for the SEA DOO drawing at the Spring Fling on March 25. Only 500 tickets are being sold at $50 each. The last name drawn will be the winner. Ticket numbers 1-100 are available in the high school office on a first-come, first-served basis.

Now that spring is here, sports activities can be seen all around the campus with baseball, softball, tennis and golf players taking to the diamonds, courts and greens. With all the teams at GDS, one can come by the campus just about any day and see a game going on.

Speaking of games, drop by the West Campus gym Friday night for the FACULTY vs. SENIORS basketball game beginning at 8 p.m. The class of '95 is sponsoring the game as a fund raiser to help pay expenses for Grad Nite. Admission is $2 per person and additional donations are certainly welcome!

Congratulations to first graders Kirsten Duff and Jonathan Dixon, the West Campus Students of the Month. Kristen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Duff, and Jonathan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Timmy Dixon.

Fourth grade teacher and elementary principal Brenda Bradcock was chosen as Teacher of the Month for the West Campus. Ms. Bradcock has been in the teaching profession for 25 years. She has two children who attend Glades Day School: Courtney and Josh.

March Fun Facts •••••

The Romans named the month of March after Mars, their god of war. March was considered the first month of the Roman year until the Julian Calendar was introduced by Julius Caesar in 46 BC.

Animal Fun Facts

A rhinoceros horn is not really a horn! It is made of hair-like fibers cemented together.

The world's largest animals feed on tiny animals. Baleen whales, such as the blue whale, feed on shrimp-like creatures called krill.

Do birds have fingers? Yes! Several finger bones are part of the wings.

Do snakes have legs? Some do! Boas and pythons have very small thigh bones which appear as spurs.

Ancestors of the modern horse were dog-sized and had four toes!

True hibernators like the ground squirrel aren't just asleep during the winter. Their internal temperature drops from 98 degrees to 34 degrees! And, their heart rate drops from 350 beats per minute to 3 beats per minute!
